

January 16, 2017

Crucible Industries, a primary specialty steel mill, has promoted John Shiesley, Director of Global Sales Powder Products, to Vice President of Sales and Marketing. In this newly established position, Mr. Shiesley will lead all sales, revenue and marketing initiatives across the Company, including identifying new revenue sources, driving new opportunities for growth and all supply chain activities. He reports to the President and Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Shiesley brings twenty-eight years of experience in the steel and metal working industries and has been with Crucible since 2008. His background in distribution coupled with his sales and manufacturing management will help guide Crucible's complete product portfolio.

